

Please do not let LPFM take priority over FM Translator stations. I listen to K-Love and other stations over translator stations. K-Love radio is a positive and encouraging station that is commercial free. I believe it is important to the community to have this kind of broadcast available. There is far too much negative radio. There would be a real void on the airwaves if K-love and other translator stations we replaced by LPFM